DIE! NAMITE
NEVER DIES!

OUR STORY SO FAR...

34 years ago (give or take), I and a small team of marketing folks helped to bring forth the first issue of PREVIEWS. The catalog came into being due to the request from Diamond Comic Distributors Owner and President Steve Geppi. Around this time, summer 1988, Steve had just purchased the Westcoast distribution network of fellow comics distributor (and longtime friend), Bud Plant, making Diamond a truly nationwide distributorship. But Diamond didn't have a catalog. Bud Plant did, however, and the team behind his monthly catalog were all invited to come to Maryland to create a catalog for Diamond. In the few short weeks that followed, Bud Plant's Quicklist Catalog became Diamond Comic Distributors' Quicklist, and then, in September of that year, was rebranded PREVIEWS for its October 1988 issue. We produced the first issue of PREVIEWS in California, at Bud Plant's headquarters in Grass Valley. By the next issue, my editor Steve Bond and I had packed up our families and moved to Maryland. Our second issue was completed in Baltimore, and the streak began.

Four hundred issues later, we're still doing what we do best, bringing you all the best in Comics, Graphics Novels, Toys, Games and other collectibles each month... two months ahead of their release, no less! Over our four hundred issue run, we've ushered in some of the biggest debuts in comics... we've seen the growth of the Toy and Collectibles market, brought the pop culture of Japan to America in the form of their manga and collectibles, and witnessed the debut of hundreds if not thousands of new comic book talents, many who have gone on to prominence in the industry. They all had to start somewhere, luckily for us, it was in PREVIEWS!

I really wanted to make this issue special, seeing as it is a landmark issue, but circumstances beyond our control made it probably one of the more difficult issues we ever had to put together. It was a rough deadline! But the PREVIEWS team pulled together this month to get the job done. From gathering the needed design elements and fonts, to working with our Purchasing team, we fought the clock and won. The issue you hold in your hands really was a team effort, and it proved that when we're challenged, we can meet any challenge, and succeed.

And it seems only fitting that this 400th issue we worked so hard to bring to you is the issue in which we reveal to you all this year's FREE COMIC BOOK DAY titles! Yes, it's that time of year again, and we're pleased to say that FCBD is back where it's supposed to be: on the first Saturday in May (that's the 7th for all those calendar-watchers), and as always, we've got a great bunch of comics this year!

Thanks for your readership. Thanks for being a part of the comics world. We couldn't do it without you!

CAPTAIN AMERICA SHIELD PROP HITS $259K IN HAKE'S $3.3M AUCTION

Hake's Auction #233, which featured an expansive mix of historical and pop culture collectibles, reached a total of $3.3 million. The Captain America shield hero prop used by Chris Evans in Avengers: Endgame was the undisputed star of the show when it soared to $259,539. Constructed by Marvel Studios Prop Master Russell Bobbitt, the detailed shield was used for close-up shots in Evans' hands.

Other strong performers were the 1999 Pokémon Unlim-ited Base Set Holographic Uncut Proof Sheet for $45,559, Mickey Mouse 1931 daily strip original art by Floyd Goffredson and Earl Duvall for $45,430, the Star Wars Millennium Falcon Spaceship AFA 80+ NM and Luke Skywalker 12-back-A AFA 80 NM (double-telescoping, SKU on footer) each for $42,834, Fantastic Four #1 CGC 6.0 for $37,269, and Tales of Suspense #39 CGC 7.0 for $35,695.

HERITAGE COMICS & ART AUCTION SURPASSES $17.8M

Heritage's Comics & Comic Art Signature Auction brought in a total of $17,823,949. The auction was led by Frank Brunner's Doctor Strange #1 original cover art that totaled $408,000. Multiple original art lots crossed the six-figure line, such as John Romita Sr.'s Origins of Marvel Comics cover for $312,000, and Don Heck's Tales of Suspense #50 complete 13-page story for $210,000.

Comics were topped by Batman's first appearance in Detective Comics #27 CGC Apparent 7.0 Extensive (A-5) that hammered for $336,000. Superman's introduction in Action Comics #1 CGC Apparent 6.5 Slight/Moderate (A-2) rose to $300,000. Captain America Comics #1 CGC 3.5 and Batman #1 CGC 2.0 each achieved $240,000.

THE EARLY DAYS OF AQUAMAN

Introduced in More Fun Comics #73 (November 1941), Aquaman was often a backup feature before he swam his way into starring roles. Created by Paul Norris and Mort Weisinger, Arthur Curry's first origin, as told in a flash-back in his first appearance, differed wildly from what they are today. His Golden Age origins put him as the son of a famous undersea explorer who grew up in the ruins of Atlantis in a water-tight home, and he became powerful by "training and a hundred scientific secrets."

His powers during this time were fairly limited - he could control undersea creatures for up to a minute by speaking to them "in their own language" rather than telepathically, and he could breathe underwater. His base was an old shipwreck, and most of his battles (like many other comic heroes of the time) were against the Nazi forces, specifically defeating their U-boats underwater.

CHRIS GRINE

PLEASE TELL US A BIT ABOUT YOURSELVES!

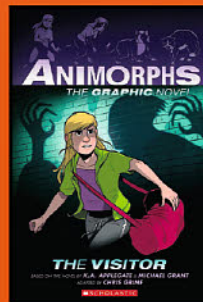

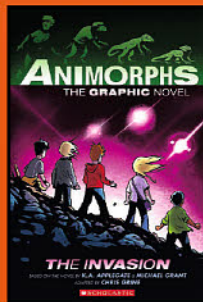

Chris Grine is an Eisner nominated creator who has worked on titles for publishers such as Dark Horse, First Comics, Image, Lion Forge/Oni, and Scholastic/Graphix. His first book, Chickenhare, was nominated for an Eisner, and is currently being adapted into an animated film called Chickenhare and the Hamster of Darkness which debuts in early 2022. His current titles include the Animorphs adaptations for Scholastic as well and the Secrets of Camp Whatever series from Oni. He is very tired.

I've been creating comics with varying degrees of success since around 2005 — although it wasn't full-time until six years ago — and I'm currently creating two graphic novels a year. When I'm not working on comics, I'm spending as much time as I can watching movies and cartoons with my kids and wife as well as shopping the toy aisles and comic shops!

EDGE ESSENTIALS

Pick up these books to learn more about Chris Grine's Indie Edge style!

- Animorphs Vol. 1: The Invasion (AUG201380)
- Animorphs Vol. 2: The Visitor (AUG211796)
- Secrets of Camp Whatever Vol. 1 (NOV201425)

WHAT ARE YOUR FAVORITE PROJECTS YOU'VE CONTRIBUTED TO OVER THE PAST DECADE?

My absolute favorite project I've been able to be a part of is adapting the Animorphs series for Scholastic. Animorphs were, and still very much are, extremely popular books, and the fandom has been overwhelmingly supportive, warm, and welcoming. I was really nervous about getting involved, because there has been over twenty years since the original series wrapped up and the fans had been asking for this for a long time. So... no pressure!

WHAT ARE YOU CURRENTLY WORKING ON?

Currently I'm finishing up the art on the third Animorphs graphic novel as well as beginning to start the third and final book in the Secrets of Camp Whatever series.

WHAT FUN TITLES ARE YOU READING?

I'm loving Skottie Young and Jorge Corona's Middlewest, and it's great to finally have some time to catch up on Cullen Bunn's Harrow County (Vol. 1 Omnibus / SEP200305), because that series is really messed up in the best ways.

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

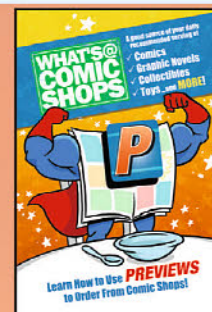

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

On June 11th 1962, Frank Lee Morris performed the most daring feat of them all: escaping from Alcatraz. Writer David Hasteda and artist Ludovic Chesnot imagine just what Frank's life might have been like after performing one of the most dangerous escapes of all time.

We caught up with DAVID and LUDOVIC to talk all things Frank Lee Morris!

DAVID HASTEDA AND LUDOVIC CHESNOT

Hey David and Ludovic, super great to speak with you! Tell us, how did you become interested in the Frank Lee story?

D: Great to be here! I actually discovered the film "Escape from Alcatraz" at a young age on TV and had always wondered what had happened after the escape. Later, I visited Alcatraz several times and saw the photos of the fugitives that were still being updated now, even though they'd presumably died by drowning. My writer's instincts kicked in and I thought there was a story to be written about it!

L: It's a story that has been with me for years. I learnt a lot about it from Don Siegel's film, newspaper articles and some documentaries. But it was David who informed me about his script on the subject during one of our promotional trips for another book. I instantly felt that this would be an incredible adventure and would be very interesting to develop.

It is a really interesting topic for sure. What made you want to work in the comic medium? Other than comics being awesome!

D: Comics can be very cinematic in their visual approach. With Ludovic assisting the extension of my vision through comic form, we were able to create a possible sequel to the film that would serve as a good reference for us later when thinking about movie scripts, as well as for the enjoyment of our readers of course.

L: For me, I had an immediate attraction to the comic universe. I didn't need to think too long, it feels instinctive! Then getting to put all my documentation of San Francisco, Alcatraz and Bolinas, from 1960 to 1979, into this format was really inspiring.

What do you think fans will be most interested to learn and feel?

D: Well, there's a mixture of romance and historical facts. I think that the readers will be captivated by his escape but also by the next steps after the event. The plan to escape from Alcatraz is ingenious but our continuation will bring fans even closer to Frank Lee the human, his emotions and the realistic outcome of this great feat.

L: I guess everyone wants to know what happened after the escape. Are they alive? Where are they? Our curiosity and imagination led us to create Frank Lee based on real elements, but David was the master behind creating a plausible ending for him. What is interesting for me is to see the aftermath of the escape through Frank's eyes, to be his confidant, to feel his emotions, in short to be totally immersed.

How would you describe your own writing/artistic style?

D: Oh I have my own style. No kidding, I don't know how to describe it. I try to be as precise as possible in describing the action. Then, I play around with different dialogues, and refine them. I have fun playing with the lines of dialogue by taking the place of the characters, by giving them voices and when a line rings true to my ear I keep it. I would say that the writing of my screenplay is closer to a film script than to a comic book.

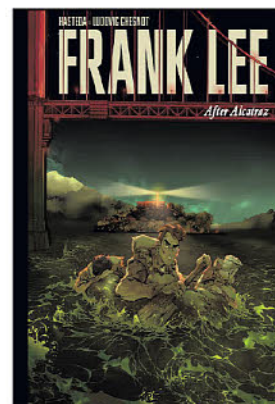

L: I have a rather eclectic range of influences in terms of graphic design and illustration. I naturally absorb what I read, watch and live, so a bit of everything really. My narration and my drawings stem from this. But what is certain, is that my illustration style is semi-realistic, with subtle lines and and genuine emotional expression. I like to stay humble about it, because I definitely still have a lot to learn.

Both of you are incredibly talented that's for certain. But lastly, tell us, what were the hardest bits to work on in this project?

D: I would say that the first part of the story was the easiest to write, probably because it's based on historical facts. The last part, on the other hand, was the subject of several rewrites. The meeting between Frank Lee and the journalist chasing him, that long conversation between them was probably the most painful part for me.

L: There are many things, but I would say illustrating the Alcatraz prison itself. Because it really exists, it has to be as close to reality as possible. I needed a lot of documentation and photography, and I was always discovering new sources during the production. But I also agree with David about the restaurant scene, the meeting between Frank Lee and the journalist. The staging of this sequence was very challenging, I had to rack my brains to find different shots. I think and hope we got this one right.

As Anna ran from the shadows...

And the things
hiding inside them...

The first thought that hit her was...

Ethan is going to be so pissed.

Then she thought about her mother, and the time she'd lost her at Disneyland...

Back when she was six...

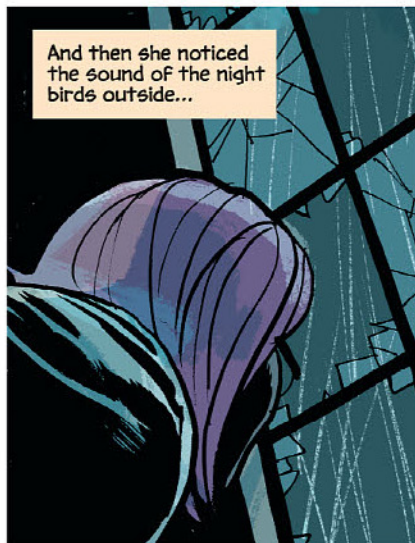

That hour of fear that never completely went away inside her...

She remembered the picture they took in the booth that day...

Anna Frowning, in mouse ears...

Mom a little bit drunk... trying to make her laugh...

Then she thought about
Lorna Valentine again...

Scream queen of the B movies...

And she really wished she hadn't taken this case.

A new and expanded edition with artwork created specially for this volume!

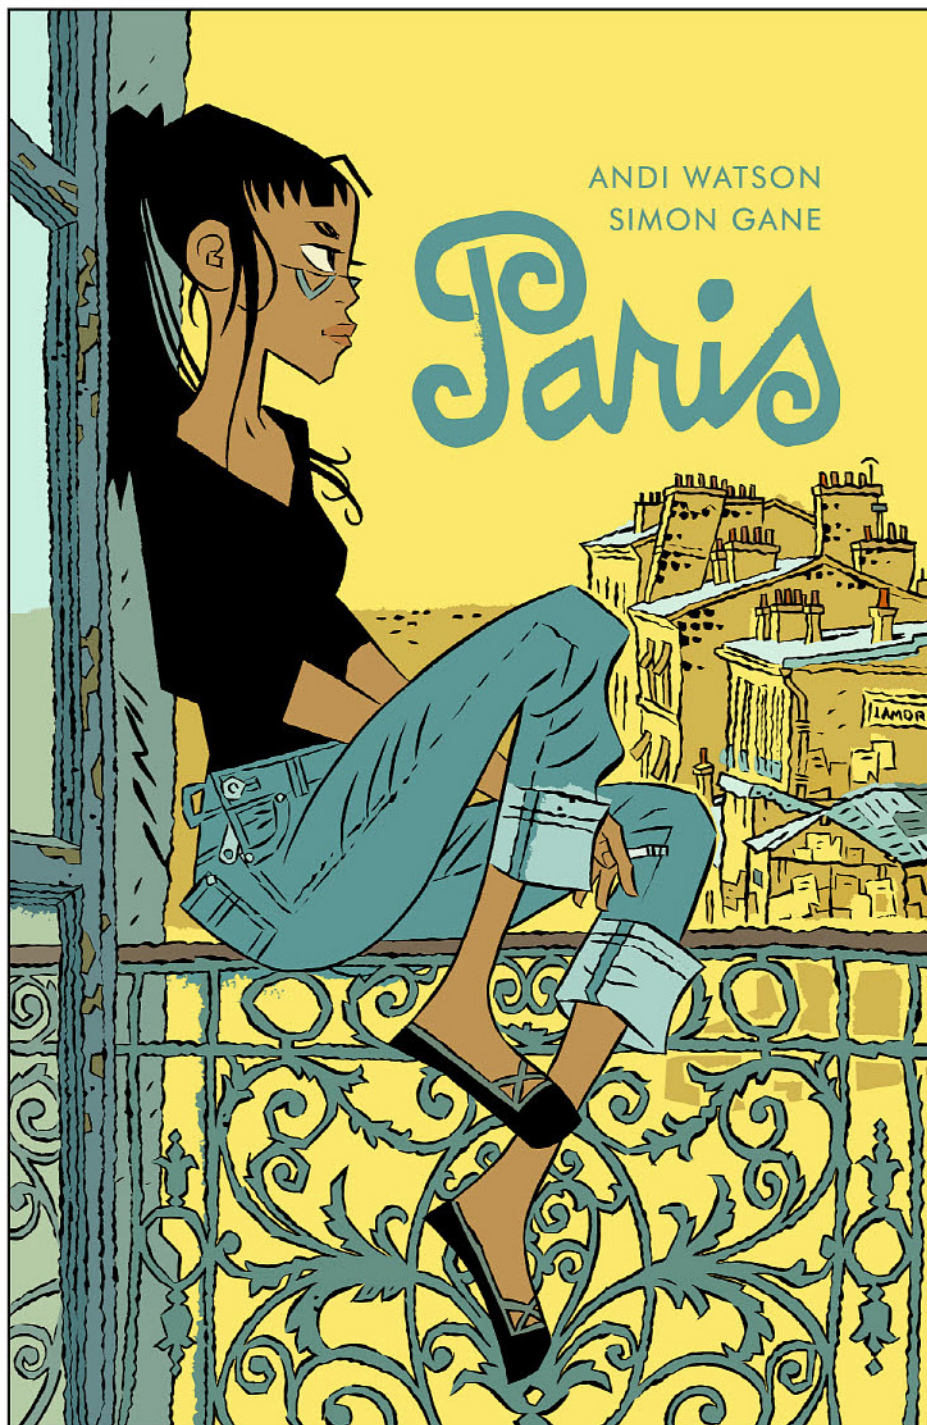

Juliet, a penniless American art student, travels to the city of light to study painting. To pay her way, she paints portraits of wealthy debutantes. One of her subjects is Deborah, a young English woman suffocated by the narrow expectations of her aristocratic family. Juliet is equally confined by the rigid academic structure of her art education and finds an unlikely kindred spirit in Deborah.

Juliet and Deborah's love for art brings them together, even as their friends and family try to drive them apart.

A fairy tale romance where the old and new worlds collide, drawn by SIMON GANE, the artist behind Eisner-nominated Ghost Tree and THEY'RE NOT LIKE US, and written by ANDI WATSON, author of The Book Tour, Kerry and the Knight of the Forest, and the forthcoming Punycorn.

Miniseries

Since the very dawn of man, legends have been told of the conflict between angel and demon-kind. Lam Lyle, a woman of science, dismissed these stories as just that—fiction. But when the loss of a loved one leads to the discovery of a hulking, benevolent demon named Hellvis, Lam realizes that her life is about to undergo a dire new direction. With a newfound partner and awesome powers now at her disposal, our hero suddenly finds herself thrust into a climactic war of good and evil with no less than the fate of the world hanging in the balance . . .

TO BE CLEAR, HE DID HAVE A GOOD REASON.

I'D GOT LOST IN THE MARSH AND A COPPERHEAD BIT ME. APPARENTLY, IT JUST JUMPED OUT OF THE GRASS AND GOT MY MIDDLE FINGER.

BY THE TIME MY DAD FOUND ME, MY WHOLE ARM WAS ROTTED OUT. SO REALLY, HE HAD NO CHOICE.

RIGHT AFTER I CAME OUT OF THE HOSPITAL, HE GOT ME A NEW ARM. INSCRIBED IT HIMSELF.

EVERY YEAR HE MADE ME A NEW ONE.

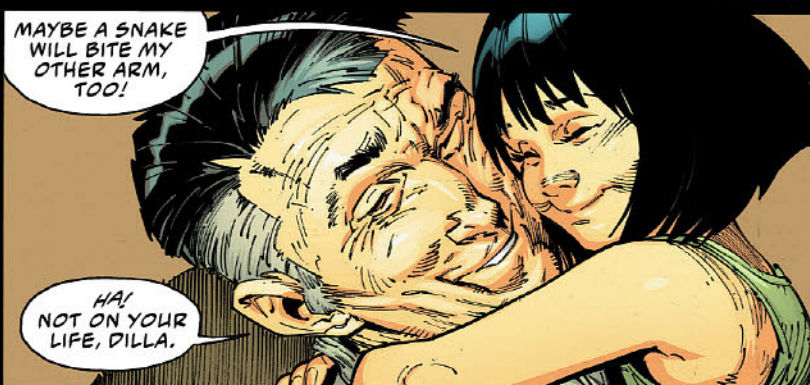

HE HAD SOME FRIENDS AT COLLIER COUNTY TECH HELP HIM KEEP EACH NEW ONE CUTTING EDGE, BEST THERE WAS.

THE POINT IS, CORNY AS IT SOUNDS, BACK THEN MY DAD WAS MY HERO. NO TWO WAYS ABOUT IT. HE WAS A GOOD DAD.

HE ALWAYS TOOK TIME FOR ME, MADE ME FEEL SUPPORTED.

EVEN WHEN HE STARTED DATING AGAIN AND MARRIED MY OLD SIXTH-GRADE TEACHER, JUNE MAGIDA, HE PUT ME FIRST.

I WASN'T THE ONLY ONE WHO LOOKED UP TO HIM, THOUGH.

HE RAN OUR LOCAL CHURCH,
PASCALOOSA UNITARIAN.

HE WAS PASTOR CASH. BUT
HE WAS COOL. JUST...OPEN
MINDED. HE LOVED SCIENCE (ASTRONOMY, ESPECIALLY-- WE BOTH DID).

FAITH TO HIM WASN'T JUST BELIEF IN GOD, BUT BELIEF IN YOUR FELLOW MAN. BELIEF IN OUR ABILITY TO MAKE THINGS BETTER TOMORROW.

HIS THESIS WAS THAT EVERYONE
HAS GOD IN THEM. LITERALLY
AND FIGURATIVELY. THE SPARKS
FROM THE BIG BANG ARE IN US
ALL. WE'RE ALL MADE OF HIM,
WE JUST HAVE TO BELIEVE IT...

I DIDN'T BUY IT, OF COURSE, BUT I RESPECTED HIM. HE WAS JUST
OF THAT GENERATION. THE BOAT
WAS ALREADY SINKING WHEN THEY WERE YOUNG, SURE, BUT THERE WERE STILL WATER PUMPS,
LIFEBOATS...THESE DAYS, ASKING
KIDS TO HAVE FAITH IN THE FUTURE
IS LIKE SAYING, "GROW GILLS."

I DID LOVE HEARING HIM
PREACH THOUGH. HIS BIG CATCH PHRASE WAS...

IT WAS SOMETHING HE CAME UP WITH AFTER I WAS SNAKEBIT.
THE MIDDLE FINGER EXTENDS FARTHEST FROM THE HAND, HE SAID--REACHES BEYOND THE OTHERS...IT'S GOD'S FINGER.

HE HUNTED THAT
SNAKE FOR DAYS. HAD IT
STUFFED AND MOUNTED.

FOR HIM, THE SNAKE WAS TEMPTATION. NOT TO SIN, BUT TO LOSE YOUR WAY. TO STOP BELIEVING
IN YOURSELF AND OTHER PEOPLE.

SURE, HE TRAVELED A LOT
WITHOUT EXPLANATION. AND
YEAH, HE COULD BE GUARDED.
BUT HE WAS GODFOLK. OR SO I THOUGHT, UNTIL THAT ONE NIGHT WHEN I WAS SIXTEEN...

Huck and Nadia are enjoying their twenties: working in Big Tech and developing an adventurous sex life. Together they fantasize about opening their relationship with a "free pass" to sleep with certain friends or celebrities. It's all in good fun.

But Huck is leading a double life. As a national election looms, he grows more and more uncomfortable with his company's unelected authority over internet discourse.

When the couple receives a bizarre gift — a cutting-edge humanoid sex AI that can morph into anyone — their worlds of fantasy, trust, and consent are thrown into blissful chaos.

In a society growing more divided each day, Huck struggles with the pressure to uphold boundaries at work... while everything is collapsing at home.

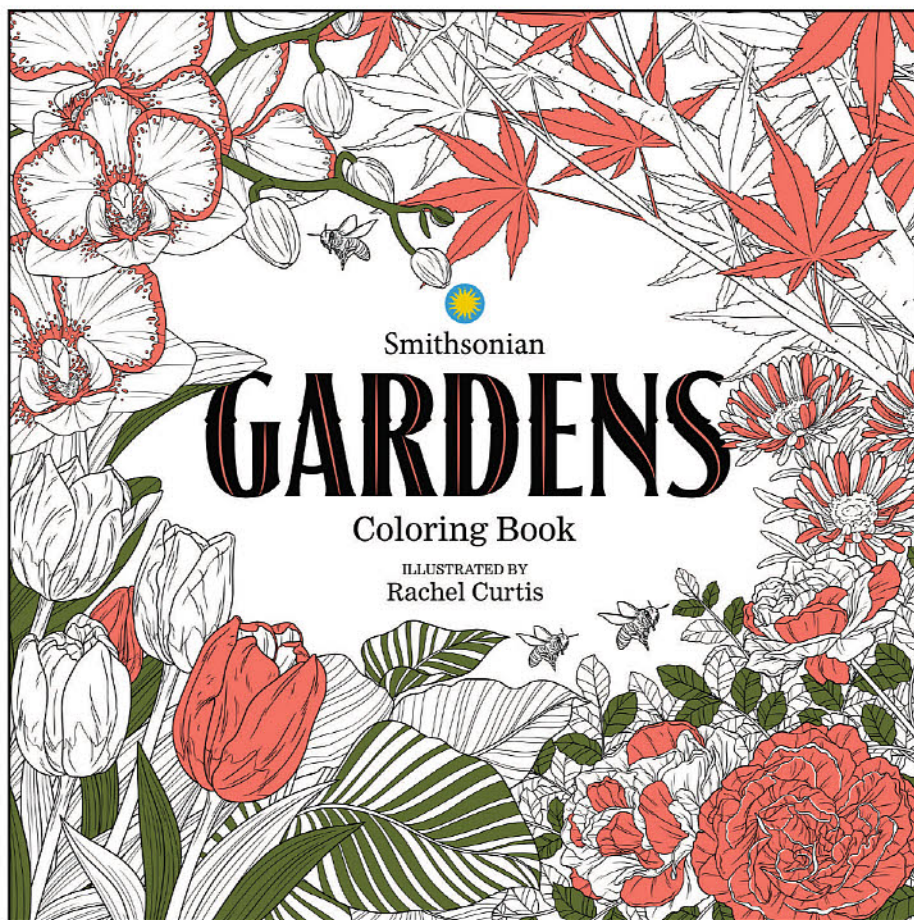

Julian Hanshaw follows his acclaimed graphic novels Tim Ginger and Cloud Hotel with an intoxicating new tale of liberty, privacy, and shame, set in the sticky place where sex, politics, and technology come together.

"Hanshaw has outdone himself with Free Pass. A futuristic sex fantasy that is as much fun for women as it is for men, set against the background of our world-gone-mad politics, this story glows in Hanshaw's unearthly artwork."

A pioneer of 21st-century graphic memoir, Jeffrey Brown captures timeless insights into love, intimacy, and vulnerability in three unforgettable relationship portraits.

Twenty years ago, young painter Jeffrey Brown grew frustrated with the expectations of the art world and wanted desperately to make something real. In a single sketchbook, working directly in ink, he began recording his memories of a recent long-distance relationship, matching the emotional frailty of the young lovers with painfully honest writing and art. As that book, Clumsy, struck a chord with readers and spawned the follow-ups Unlikely and Any Easy Intimacy, Brown's work proved a watershed for the emerging form of the graphic memoir.

Chronicling the awkward mess of romantic relationships in unsparing and unflinching detail, these works also reflect the fragmentary nature of memory, the risk of opening ourselves to pain, and the giggly rush of falling in love. Now collected into one volume for the first time, this Relationship Trilogy is a bittersweet reminder of the everyday joy, heartbreak, and humor that—despite everything—keep us coming back for more.

"Something about the way Jeffrey Brown draws these stories makes the saddest, dirtiest, most humiliating things that can possibly happen to a person seem weirdly innocent. . . You can open to any page and find something unusually bare and honest about these stories. They're surprising, even though half the moments in the book are ones you've probably experienced yourself. Hard trick to pull off."—Ira Glass, This American Life, NPR

The Kill Lock unified four criminals in a quest to escape their seemingly inevitable, linked deaths. Homeworld won't allow it, and so two of the deadliest assassins in the universe are tasked to kill the Artisan Wraith.

Transformers artist Livio Ramondelli continues the cult hit, The Kill Lock (2020) in the next installment of this vicious and darkly funny sci-fi series.

"I find myself so involved, invested, and thoroughly engaged from the start, and I simply do not wish the story would end. I have mad respect for Livio as he is pretty much doing it all here. . . he has opened up a world of storytelling."

After twenty years working on film and series shoots, Benoît Cohen is drained. His enthusiasm gone, a desire to stop writing and put down the camera takes over. In the city for a year, he still wonders about how best to absorb the rich diversity of the cosmopolitan metropolis, settling on a simple idea: he will become a taxi driver.

Behind the iconic Yellow Cab, behind the fantasy of freedom and independence, behind the faces of his thousands of passengers, Benoît discovers a world to which he is a stranger. He dives into his new life with the idea of turning it into a screenplay for a future film, but the material he collects from this social experiment marks him deeply, leading down unsuspected paths: First, the administrative maze that leads to the taxi driver's license. Then the world behind the scenes. And finally, the prejudices that surround the profession and lead customers, cops, and the entire city to look at it—quite randomly—either with indifference, kindness, or aggression.

The project transforms into an autobiographical novel interspersed with reflections on the creative process, and with the help of Chabouté, it is now a sensitive, deeply human graphic novel with breathtaking illustrations that pay vibrant tribute to New York City.

NEVER SAY DIE! FRED VAN LENTE RISES FROM HIS GRAVE TO TALK NEW SERIES

Fred, you're alive, we're alive, and zombies continue to haunt the world of Dynamite. We swear this is not any type of allegory... On to chapter three, how's it cooking up?

Deliciously, like brains! So excited to be back for yet more gory crossover insanity.

We're crafting this series for folks to jump right into of course, but without mega-spoilers, what are the basics of what has happened in the world of Die!namite so far in the first two series?

Well, as is common in zombie apocalypse books, a zombie plague broke out across the multiverse that encompasses Dynamite's family of books. Barsoom and Hyborea soon fell to the undead hordes, with Drakulon not far behind. But a ragtag group of heroes made a last stand on Earth, with Sonja taking on the role of the assassin of Hel--the role formerly held by Evil Ernie. The now-Evil Sonja took command of Earth's dead, and after she tried to wipe out all of humanity, you know, as you do, she was persuaded of the error of her ways--but Earth isn't the universe, and a combined Drakulonian/Martian force of alien zombies is posed to invade! No rest for the zombie-killers.

In Lives, fans were excited to see the entry of both Ashley Williams (Army of Darkness) and Jennifer Blood to this ever-expanding skin-ripping crossover. Can we expect any more surprises this time around?

As has become tradition, we are introducing new Dynamite characters in each series--and now Lord Greystoke himself, Tarzan of the Apes, is joining the party. Zombie dinosaurs are invading his jungle, and Tarzan investigates, only to find himself transported to far-flung Barsoom! I am excited to see these two great Edgar Rice Burroughs creations interact.

You're now working toward over a year's worth of comic books working with the same creators, building a lot of chemistry artistically and off the page. How is that lending itself to the story?

It's been really rewarding. I love working with Vincenzo, and he's just bringing so much to every page. I laugh out loud when I proof the letters of every issue, we really are sharing a brain and it comes out in each issue.

You've already pulled some dramatic triggers in this world, turning Red Sonja to the dark side and singing off Vampirella's hair. [Laughs] Could we see Smiley the Psychotic Button turning into a giant zombie dinosaur or anything this time? Just teasing, but we imagine there are going to be even more jaw-dropping moments!

Oh, absolutely. Smiley is now Evil Sonja's Psychotic Sword, and he can't wait to feast on her enemies, who are numerous and disgusting! And to stop the invasion, they're going to have to travel to Barsoom to find Issus, the Martian Goddess Death--but Zombie John Carter and Zombie Dejah Thoris are waiting to stop them!

Poor Bettie Page has barely finished up her latest adventure and gotten back to modeling when duty calls once more! Seems there's something funny going on in a place called Area 51, and it's up to Bettie to investigate! There's a catch this time, though—the United States military might be putting Bettie on the case, but they can't avow the existence of said case—or Bettie! Instead, our marvelous model is given a crack team of assistants to help her go where no woman has gone before! Fresh off scribing Bettie Page and the Bigfoot Bandits, this spaceship is steered with a purpose by fan-favorite Ani-Mia and illustrated with only the finest stardust by Celor (Hack/Slash vs. Chaos!, Kiss: The Phantom Obsession)!

ALIENS INVADE BETTIE-LAND AND WRITER ANI-MIA SHARES MORE!

Mia, many fans may know you for some of your other billion skills as a renaissance woman. Whether that is your hit cosplay and modeling, writing for sites like Otaku USA and Cosplay Central, or hosting video programming of PreviewsWorld, of this very same catalog. At least that's how they'll know you until you blow them away with your writing! How are you approaching working further in this new medium?

I've honestly been diving headfirst into it. Writing has always been a passion of mine from the first book I wrote in the fourth grade, a horribly cheesy horror story a la RL Stine and Christopher Pike, who I adored at the time. Thankfully that one will stay hidden. But it reminds me that my love for writing has always been there, life just took me in a lot of different directions first. Now that I have this opportunity to write fiction again, I'm more inspired than I have been in a long time. So I bought a new Chromebook and have been typing away ever since then.

What can you tease us about this upcoming tale? We hear the queen of the pinups is tangling with aliens..?

Yes! Bettie has battled so many fantastic creatures, but I was inspired by Stephen Mooney's Bettie from Curse of the Banshee, and I wanted to continue with the cryptid theme since it's something that has always fascinated me. I've always been a believer in aliens, or at least life existing somewhere out there in the galaxy. I think the main question, at least for me, has always been their intentions. Are they good? Bad? Would they even want to meet with us or stay clear of us? Well, Bettie's going to be looking into that for us.

As a cosplayer and model yourself, do you feel that you can relate to or channel yourself to Bettie as her character and the amazing real-life icon, as you write her scenes and dialog? Or perhaps you differ and that strikes ideas?

I actually have some acting training and experience which really comes in handy when writing. I'm also a huge cinephile, so when I'm writing, I see the scenes playing out in my head like a movie and I'm simply documenting dialogue and storyboarding. When I'm writing dialog for each character, it's almost like acting out each character myself. I want them to have their own personalities and quirks so getting into character while I'm writing their dialogue makes it feel more natural.

Prior to "upgrading" to this expanded series, we collaborated on a fun Bettie one-shot special over on Indiegogo. Some fans will be getting a sneak peek at your ideas then, and we're planning to make the story available again widely soon. But how does this new story connect with "Bigfoot Bandits?" Though of course readers will be able to jump into issue #1 right away without it!

In Bigfoot Bandits, Bettie is tasked by the military with uncovering a mystery at a military base in the Pacific Northwest. Because it's Bettie, we know she excelled at her task and has now become a go-to for her military connection on all things mysterious and spooky. Who's the military gonna call? Bettie Page.

You'll also be bringing in some fun new supporting characters for Bettie to bounce off - can you tell us a bit about them?

I didn't want Bettie to be going at this alone and I wanted to give her a team to work with. One of the things I want to make sure to include in my comics is a wide variety of people and cultures. I want rich characters with diverse backgrounds. You have Sofia, a beautiful and scholarly Puerto Rican professor, who specializes in archeology. And then you have Young-ja, a Korean American young lady, who's a bit rough around the edges but is a world-renowned puzzle solver and lover of food. Each has their own motivations for joining on this mission but together, they have one single mission. To protect Earth.

It's all led up to this! Nyx has been weathering the struggle between her human and demon sides for the past four issues... (not to mention her entire life), and by the time this one's over, she'll have found an answer...or she'll be dead! Probably at the hands of her father, the Mad God Chaos, who has whipped himself into shape after being a bit of a mess in issue #2 and is once again an unstoppable force of the universe. Has our story so far given Nyx anything that can save her, or has it all been a pointless journey of excessive drinking and violence? Like the meme says...why not both?

WRITER: XAVIER DORISON | ARTIST: FELIX DELEP

"Felix Delep hits a home run with the art from the start! The animals are all drawn with amazing textures; it's like I can feel their fur myself just by touching the page. They look so realistic and yet... they are talking!"—THEGWW.COM

"The art showcasing these animals is perfectly done. This is a touching story that will have you feeling for these poor animals."—FIRSTCOMICSNEWS.COM

"Animal Castle is an astoundingly well-illustrated story of survival in a brutally run animal kingdom. Picture the animated film 'Chicken Run', but without the laughs and antics. It's chilling and incredibly breathtaking to read. And recommended."—FANBOYFACTOR.COM

ON THE FARM ALL ANIMALS WERE EQUAL.
IN THE CASTLE SOME ARE MORE EQUAL THAN OTHERS.

The animals are more divided now than ever. Acts of defiance by the workers lead to swift and deadly reprisals from President Silvio and his crew. But Miss B. won't be deterred from her mission to bring equality, and hopefully peace, to the animals.

SCI-FI/ADVENTURE

We didn't think it was possible to have too much story to pack into a single issue, but leave it to the best-selling Miranda Brothers to prove us wrong! The eagerly anticipated and much heralded return of AfterShock's top selling title – WE LIVE – picks up exactly where the first arc left off and features so many events, perspectives and stunning visions that we just had to create TWO Issue #1's. Yes, WE LIVE: AGE OF THE PALLADIONS starts off with a double dose of dynamite!

WRAPAROUND GATEFOLD COVER!

We are back into the hopeful, apocalyptic world of Tala and Hototo.

Year 2090. Six years have passed since Salvation Day, when the Palladions, with their majestic powers, emerged as the protectors of humanity, saving the five remaining Megalopolis and securing the future of the human species.

But nothing stays and the horizon always brings a new storm.

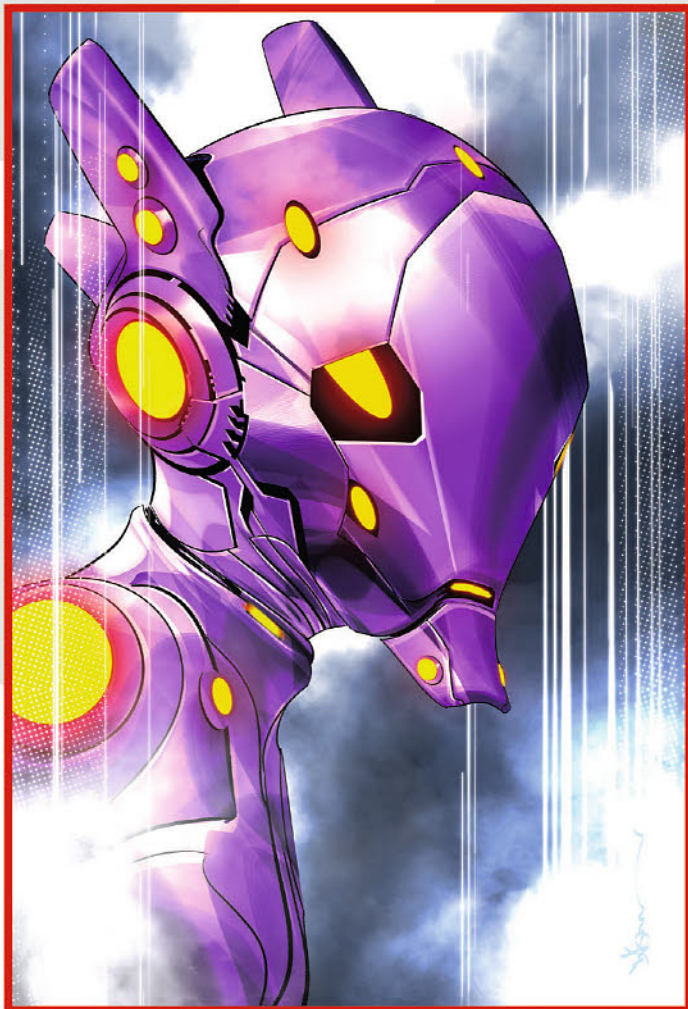

These are dark times. Death, famine and desperation lurk around the streets of Megalopolis 9. The shield has lost thirty percent of its reach. The New Nature has learned to create cuts in the energy channels that power the Beacon and the Palladions. A neverending horde of beasts siege the remains of the city, increasing the desperation among the population.

The responsibility of keeping the city afloat lies on the shoulders of Generals Nesbo and Terrassa, who have to resort to risky survival measures. The reconnection missions are the only thing that is keeping the population secure...but nothing seems enough.

Powerlessness corners the Palladions, who fear not being able to protect the city.

Everything is black, except for the white snow that covers with silence the dying, black present.

Aaron Tse lives for his family, and if he's not careful, he'll die for its secrets. When he left the military, Aaron Tse's first thought was providing for his aging parents. His parents' bar is experiencing hard times, and one night it's shot to hell, with his parents critically injured in the attack.

But this was no ordinary robbery — Aaron's mother reveals that she fled China to escape a blood feud between the Jewish and Chinese sides of her family...both of which are powerful organized crime families. Peace existed between these two families — the Hu and the Margolis — but now it's been broken, and Aaron must protect his parents from further violence. Aaron hops a plane to the homeland he never intended to explore, on a path to revenge he never wanted to walk.

Written by Jon Tsuei (Sera and the Royal Stars, RunLoveKill) and Steve Orlando (Martian Manhunter, Wonder Woman, KILL A MAN, PROJECT PATRON) and drawn by artist sensation Rubine, SEARCH FOR HU is a fast-paced, action-packed exploration of complex cultural histories, powered by a bloody family feud.

This volume collects the entire series, issues #1-5.

This Volume is on sale April 13th, 2022.

SORT OF SUPER GN

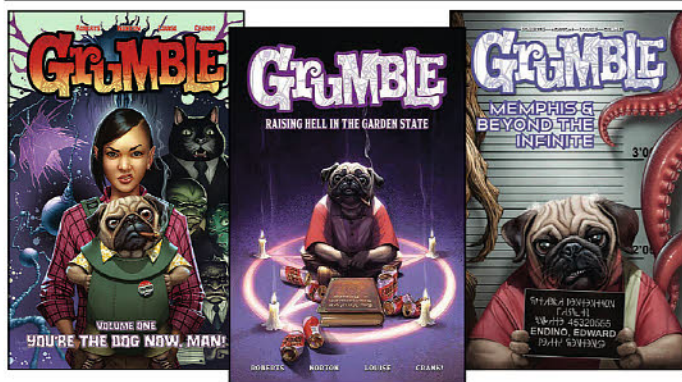

(W/A) Eric Gapstur
Eleven year-old Wyatt Flynn had something amazing happen to him: he got superpowers! Good ones too, like superflight, superstrength, and superspeed. The only problem? Wyatt got his superpowers totally by mistake (in a Marvel style "accident" at his dad's work) and his dad thinks he's too young to have superpowers. Plus his dad also worries what would happen if everyone found out... so he makes Wyatt hide them. Keeping his superpowers a secret from his best friends Beto and Nara is bad enough, but not being able to use them to defend himself and his friends from the biggest bully at school... that's just the pits if you ask Wyatt. As Wyatt tries to navigate middle school and deal with his newfound sort of super status, he also grapples with questions about the mysterious disappearance of his mother. Where did she go, and what would she think about his accidental superpowers? Available in softcover and hardcover editions. (STL217542) (C: 0-1-0)

Eddie is a low-rent hustler who got magically turned into a pug during a con gone wrong. Tala is the part-demon daughter of Eddie's ex-partner. When Tala finds herself the target of powerful interdimensional forces, she goes to Eddie for help—setting off a chain reaction of chaos and destruction that could threaten the very fabric of existence. SEVENOAKS GN

(W/A/CA) Kevin Sacco
In the summer of 1966, aspiring artist Kevin Sacco learns that his family is moving from New York City to London—and that he will be attending Sevenoaks, a traditional boarding school in the English countryside. At first considered a "Yank" outsider with limited academic or sports acumen, Sacco gradually comes to experience and understand this life of rugby, cold showers, new friendships and discipline. Letters between Sacco and his best friend in New York serve to compare his cloistered life at Sevenoaks to the life that he would be living back home: a life touched by drugs, anti-war sentiments, and racial unrest. H.P. LOVECRAFT: THE STATEMENT OF RANDOLPH CARTER ONE-SHOT

(W) Steven P. Jones, H. P. Lovecraft
(A) Christopher Jones, David DeVera
(CA) Christopher Jones

Harley Warren is an expert on violent criminals and assists the FBI in their profiling and pursuit of criminals who tend to be on the bizarre side. Warren explores the darker side of man and when he comes across the book The Necronomicon, a book that can reveal the locations of the darkest and oldest mysteries of the stygian unknown; he wastes no time packing up his reluctant chronicler and assistant, Randolph Carter, to take with him to explore one such site. This Lovecraft tale is adapted by award winning comic writer Steven Philip Jones (CALIBER's Sherlock Holmes, Dracula). (STL217428)

VIETNAM JOURNAL: HAMBURGER HILL TP

(W/A) Don Lomax

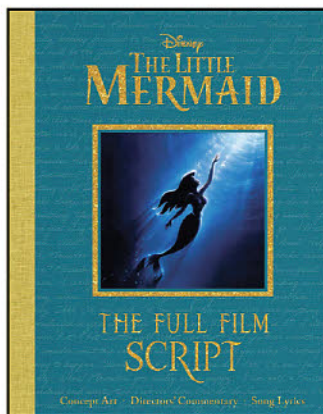

(CA) Balazs Petheo

The Battle of Hamburger Hill took place May 13-20, 1969 and was fought by U.S. Army and Army of the Republic of Vietnam (ARVN) forces against the People's Army of Vietnam (PAVN) of North Vietnam during Operation Apache Snow. The hill had little strategic value but U.S. command ordered its capture by a frontal assault. Upon capture by U.S. forces the hill was soon abandoned, falling back into North Vietnam hands. The action caused a controversy both within the American military and back home with the public. Don Lomax, who served during the Vietnam War and put to paper his experiences, tells the story of Hamburger Hill through the eyes of embedded war reporter Scott "Journal" Neithammer. Collected here is the entire serial as it appeared in Gallery Magazine. (STL217427)

THE CITY OF BELGIUM HC

(W/A/CA) Brecht Evens

As night falls in the City of Belgium, three strangers in their late twenties — a most dangerous age — arrive at a popular restaurant. Jona is about to move away; he calls his wife, who's already settled in Berlin, before trying to make plans with friends for one last night on the town. No one bites, but he's determined to make this night something to remember. Victoria is lively and energetic, but surrounded by friends and family who are buzzkills, always worrying about what is best for her. Rodolphe glumly considers his own misery and then suddenly snaps out of it, becoming the life of the party. The three career through the city's nightlife spots and underbelly, chasing pleasure—or at least a few distractions from their daily lives. Each has a series of adventures that reveal them to be teetering on the edge between lucid dream and tooth-grinding nightmare. (STL167528) (JUN208512)

TOPS:
THE COMPLETE COLLECTION OF
CHARLES BIRO'S VISIONARY
1949 COMIC BOOK SERIES

By Charles Biro, edited by Michael T. Gilbert

$49.99 / HC / 216 pgs / FC / 10.5" x 14"

In 1949, Charles Biro created Tops, an oversized comic aimed at adults which lasted only two issues that have since become holy grails among comics fans and historians. And, until now, have never been reprinted. Contributors included Dan Barry, George Tuska, Reed Crandall among others. This compilation includes essays providing background on the creation of the series and the publisher, editors, and cartoonists who realized it. Tops is a landmark work and a mind-boggling reading experience meticulously restored and reproduced in a deluxe hardcover in its originally published dimensions.

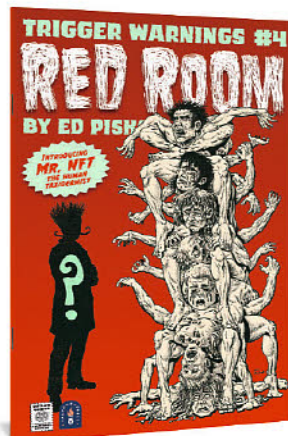

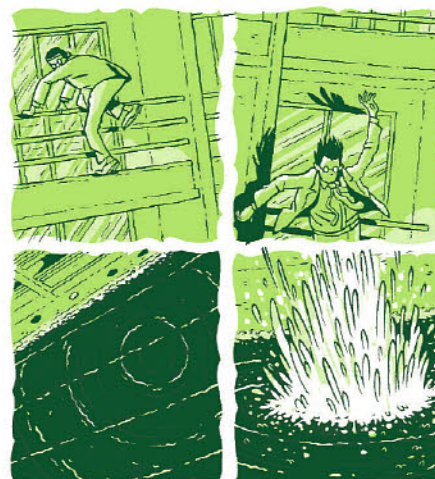

KEEPING TWO

By Jordan Crane

$29.99 / HC / 304 pgs / FC / 5.375" x 8.4375"

A woman leaves to get takeout and a movie, and her partner is forced to confront loss, fear, and insecurities in unexpected and shocking ways. 20 years in the making, this masterpiece from Jordan Crane is one of the most exciting works of graphic literary fiction in recent memory, a brilliant adult drama that showcases an empathy and compassion for its characters as well as Crane's considerable comics making talents. Ostensibly a story about loss, the title hints at the dualities within; by the end, Keeping Two might also be about finding something along the way. In that way, it's also a deeply romantic book, and one of the books of the year.

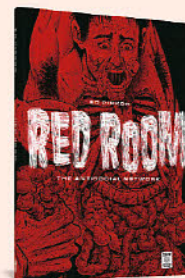

RED ROOM: TRIGGER WARNINGS #4

by Ed Piskor

$3.99 / Comic Book / 24 pgs / FC / 6.6" x 10.3"

Mr. NFT is the Banksy of Red Rooms. Billing himself as the "human taxidermist," his exhibitions command the attention of the richest and most exclusive patrons on the dark web. Problem is, it's all an elaborate sting operation, and several of those snared are amongst the powerful in the world and will do anything to avoid exposure. Red Room wraps up its second "season" with its most shocking issue yet! From the creator of Hop Hop Family Tree and X-Men: Grand Design!

MICKEY MOUSE: ZOMBIE COFFEE

By Régis Loisel

$24.99 / HC with slipcase / 80 pgs / FC / 8" x 12"

Award-winning French cartoonist/ Disney animator Régis Loisel presents an amazing brand-new Mickey adventure told in the daily-comic-strip-serial style of Disney legend Floyd Gottfredson's beloved early Mickey adventures — packed with action, laughs, and magnificent details that explode off the pages! This deluxe edition is a landscape-formatted hardcover that comes in a portrait-formatted slipcase — and so the buyer can shelf it vertically but read it in its full cinemascope-style glory!

MR. LIGHTBULB

By Wojtek Wawszczyk, translated by
Antonia Lloyd-Jones

$29.99 / SC / 624 pgs / BW / 5.75" x 7.5"

In this electrifying graphic novel debut, Wojtek Wawszczyk uses magical realism to tell a moving tale of finding light in a life full of darkness. At once surrealist, comedic, heartbreaking, bitterly sarcastic, and deeply sincere,

Mr. Lightbulb is an essential work of comics autobio as his protagonist balances challenging family dynamics with his creative ambitions and desire to forge his way in the world. This book, which clocks in at over 600 pages, combines a grand scope with brisk plotting, adding up to a tour de force of artistry and honesty.

LIFE OF CHE

Written by Héctor Germán Oesterheld, drawn by Alberto Breccia and Enrique Breccia, with an afterword by Pablo Turnes

$19.99 / HC / 88 pgs / B&W / 8.5" x 11.5"

Life of Che is one of the most anticipated entries in Fantagraphics' The Alberto Breccia Library. Originally released in 1969, it came out in Argentina only a year after Ernesto "Che" Guevara had died and reached an audience beyond comics readers. In the 1970s, the military government destroyed the means to reprint the book, making it a "lost" comic until 1987 when it was published in Spain — and never translated into English until now. The book flashes through Che's life — his childhood, his radicalizing motorcycle trip, his taking up of arms, his meeting with Fidel Castro, and his subsequent military and political maneuvers, ending in a fade-out to his death.

HEADLAND

By Kate Schneider

$24.99 / SC / 184 pgs / FC / 7" x 9"

In Headland, artist Kate Schneider pays tribute to her departed grandmother, presenting with deeply felt empathy a perspective little represented in popular literature. Drawn with soft pencils and lush colors, this graphic novel explores the tensions between safety and autonomy, language and silence, holding on and letting go.

THE CLITORIS

By Rikke Villadsen

$29.99 / SC / 184 / B&W / 7.4" x 10"

A woman's encounter with a tattooist leads to a pregnancy, and this unexpected event sends her on a journey of self-discovery. Rendered in her raw, immediate graphite style, and delving into her innermost fears, desires, and self-doubts, The Clitoris is perhaps Danish cartoonist Rikke Villadsen's most intimate work to date. A fiercely feminist, playful, ironic, and introspective graphic novel that proves Villadsen to be an undeniable creator to follow in the global comics scene.

ANY GUN CAN PLAY: THE ESSENTIAL GUIDE TO EURO-WESTERNS HC

(W) Kevin Grant

The success of Sergio Leone's Dollars trilogy in the 60s sparked a gold rush, as a legion of European film-makers, many of them sharing the get-rich-quick mentality of Leone's mercenary anti-heroes followed the master's lead to create some of the wildest Westerns ever made. Cynical and stylish, bloody and baroque, Euro-Westerns replaced straight-shooting sheriffs and courageous cowboys with amoral adventurers, whose murderous methods would shock the heroes of Hollywood Westerns. Any Gun Can Play explores the films' wider reaches, their recurrent themes, characters, quirks and motifs. It examines the American models and explores the mechanics of the Italian film industry. (STL217358) (C: 0-1-1)

SPOTLIGHT ON

BUTTON PUSHER GN

(W/A) Tyler Page

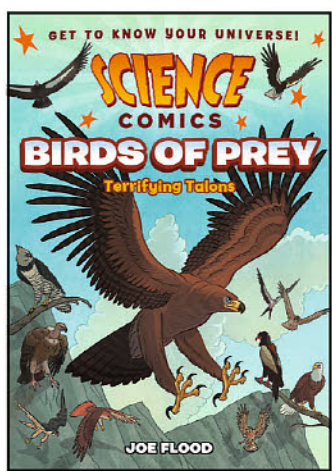

Tyler's brain is different. Unlike his friends, he has a hard time paying attention in class. He acts out in goofy, over-the-top ways. Sometimes, he even does dangerous things—like cut up a bus seat with a pocketknife or hang out of an attic window. To the adults in his life, Tyler seems like a troublemaker. But he knows that he's not. Tyler is curious and creative. He's the best artist in his grade, and when he can focus, he gets great grades. He doesn't want to cause trouble, but sometimes he just feels like he can't control himself. In Button Pusher, cartoonist Tyler Page delves into his childhood experiences and explores what it means to grow up with ADHD.

From diagnosis to treatment and beyond, Tyler's story is raw and enlightening, inviting you to see the world from a new perspective. (STL217362) (C: 0-1-0) SC, 6x9, 128pgs, FC$14.99

A Creator You Should Know: LARRY HAMA

Writer-artist-editor Larry Hama began his long association with the comic book incarnation of G.I. Joe almost immediately following then Marvel Comics editor-in-chief Jim Shooter's meeting with Hasbro. "It was Larry's book all the way," Shooter said. And in the minds of many fans, that's how it has remained. During the title's 155-issue run at Marvel, subsequent appearance at Devil's Due Publishing, and revival at IDW Publishing, Hama's portrayal of the characters defined many of them permanently for their fans. He has, however, been far from all G.I. Joe. He broke into comics as an assistant for Wally Wood, served as editor for Marvel's Conan line and The 'Nam, created Bucky O'Hare, wrote such titles as Kitty Pryde, Agent of SHIELD, Punisher: War Zone and Weapon X, among others. He has also written video games, consulted for G.I. Joe in feature films, and even appeared as an actor on *M*A*S*H*, but it's his work on G.I. Joe – including the acclaimed "Silent Interlude" in G.I. Joe #21, which he wrote and penciled – that continues to demand attention.

HAKIM'S ODYSSEY BOOK 2: FROM TURKEY TO GREECE GN

(W/A) Fabien Toulme

Captivating and deeply moving, this second book of the critically-acclaimed Hakim's Odyssey follows the true story of a Syrian refugee. In exile and far from his homeland, Hakim finds a bit of hope in the birth of his son. But between unstable jobs and selling what he can in the streets, it's hard to survive... and impossible for the family to stay together. Reluctantly separated from the woman he loves and alone with his child, Hakim will have to overcome incredible odds and seemingly impossible obstacles to reunite his family, which leads him to make the most difficult decision of his life. SWAN LAKE: QUEST FOR THE KINGDOMS GN

(W) Rey Terciero (A) Megan Kearney

Frozen meets The Wizard of Oz in this middle grade fantasy graphic novel. Once upon a time, two unlikely friends became Swan Lake's greatest heroes. Odette and Dillie were supposed to be enemies. Their kingdoms have been feuding since before they were born. But when the two princesses meet each other at the lake that separates their castles, it's clear they were destined to be best friends. Odette—who lives with a curse that magically transforms her into a swan when the sun rises—is happy to find someone who treats her like everyone else. And Dillie has finally met someone who understands her dream of having an adventure instead of sitting on a throne. When they discover that Odette's curse is the reason for tension between their families, they decide to follow an ancient legend that could lead them to someone who can set everything right. But when the time comes, will they choose their deepest wishes or the fragile fate of their world? (C: 0-1-0)

BIRTH OF A BEETLE: THE MAGAZINE CARTOONS OF MORT WALKER HC

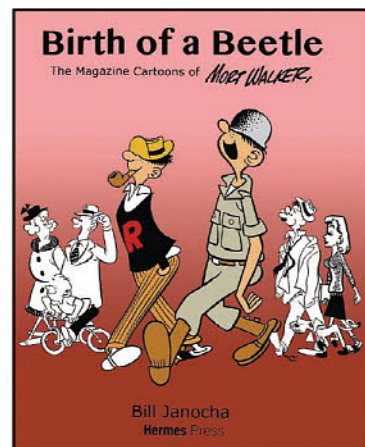

(W) Bill Janocha

(A/CA) Mort Walker

Mort Walker, the Dean of American Cartooning, left behind a legacy that extended far beyond his Beetle Bailey and Hi and Lois fame. For the first time ever, Hermes Press and Walker's assistant Bill Janocha present a rare selection of gags and art from Walker's early years, before Beetle-mania took over the world. This historical book contains examples of the work he did prior to Beetle Bailey, and explores the evolution of his style and showcases his many gags, from his early comics in Showme magazine to the work he did for the Saturday Evening Post. This tome also contains historical essays detailing his life and career, up until his death in 2018 as written by Janocha. (STL122540) (C: 0-1-0)

GLADYS PARKER: A LIFE IN COMICS, A PASSION FOR FASHION HC

(W) Trina Robbins

(A) Gladys Parker

Cartoonist Gladys Parker was unique in comics. As with Frida Kahlo, it was impossible to tell where her art left off and its creator began. Parker mixed fashion and comics and created classic characters that mimicked her sense of fashion. In fact, Parker was an exact double for her ink-and-paper creation, Mopsy. Only Gladys Parker was a fashion designer with a successful line of clothing while at the same time drawing an equally successful comic strip.

Parker's dresses bearing the Gladys Parker label were sold at her own New York shop and at high-end department stores across the country. Who better to chronicle the story of Gladys Parker than comics herstory Trina Robbins, who in the 1960s designed clothes for hippies and rock stars out of her East Village boutique, while drawing underground comix? That is, until a vicious attack leaves much of their number dead. Then all that matters is sweet, sweet revenge! Lunatics like these don't want to be district manager or employee of the month. A Postal Carrier stays in the job because they've found the one thing in the IPS they couldn't find anywhere else: a home. One they will defend until the bitter end!

In early 20th century Ukraine, anarchist Nestor Makhno, the son of peasants, was among the most heroic and colorful figures of the Russian Revolution, encouraging his people to find and embrace social and economic self-determination. This is his story, a military strategist who tirelessly defied both the Bolsheviks and the Germans to protect his homeland.

ALFRED HITCHCOCK: MASTER OF SUSPENSE HC

(W) Noel Simsolo (A) Dominique He

In 1960, the film Psycho traumatized viewers around the world. Never before had the angst or the suspense been so well presented in cinema. But where does the talent of this Alfred Hitchcock come from, the one now nicknamed the "Master of Suspense"? To find out, we must first go back to his youth, in England, during the first half of the 20th century. Having grown up in a Catholic family — a religious originality that will be felt in a large part of his cinema — "Hitch" is an atypical Englishman who, very early on, has a taste for telling stories. The temptation to work for the cinema will not be long in coming, first as a graphic designer at Islington Studios in London where his visual talent will lead him to make his debut behind the camera, as an assistant and then as a full director. It is also here that he will meet Alma Reville, his assistant and wife who will accompany him throughout his storied career, including the jump to the big time in Hollywood. Discover the life of undoubtedly one of the greatest filmmakers of all time. The story of a colorful, demanding and quite simply extraordinary artist. (STL217511) (C: 0-1-1)

ABELARD HC

The charm of Renaud Dillies strikes again: after the mouse of Bubbles & Gondola, here is another dreamer, little chick Abelard. To lure pretty Emily, Abelard sees only one solution: to catch the moon for her! So off he goes to America, the country which invented flying machines. Armed with his banjo and his proverb-sharing hat, he launches out on the country roads, meets Gypsies, then Gaston, a grumpy bear with whom he will share a good bit of his way! With this funny animal road-movie where the absurd becomes poetry, Régis Hautière and Renaud Dillies offer us another small jewel. (STK471779) (JUL121147)

BUBBLES & GONDOLA HC

(W/A/CA) Renaud Dillies

On a background of Django Reinhardt, this jewel of poetic fantasy is a fairy tale for all ages with spot on observations about life. Charlie is a mouse who's trying to write but has a block. Writing is a solitary endeavor. A bird named Solitude comes to visit him to keep him company. We're never sure he actually exists but in Charlie's mind, yet he brings him out into the world, dares him to experience the unknown, unblocking his little existence. A drama about the blank page for Charlie who so wants to make the world more beautiful with his writing, we are transported into a tender and moving tale with a twinge of lyrical melancholy yet sweet, warm and ultimately elevating. (STK445253) (JUN111187)

GLACIAL PERIOD HC

The Louvre museum is involved in a co-edition of a series of graphic novels, each a vision of this great museum by a different artist. De Crécy, at the sight of the incredible richness of the museum's collection was overwhelmed and felt small and ignorant. The result is a story set thousands of years hence in a glacial period where all human history has been forgotten and a small group of archeologists fall upon the Louvre, buried in age-old snow. They cannot begin to explain all the artifacts they see. What could they have meant? Their interpretations are nonsense, absurd, farcical. (STK637992) (MAR141267)

THE PROJECTOR AND ELEPHANT GN

(W) Martin Vaughn-James

(A) Martin Vaughn-James, Seth

In 1968, the British artist and writer Martin Vaughn-James emigrated to Canada. Over the next eight years, he proceeded to produce some of the most mesmerizing and inventive works in comics, light-years ahead of his contemporaries. Among them were Elephant and The Projector, linked graphic novels that guide the reader (and a bespectacled Everyman) through landscapes built out of both the everyday and the nightmarish. Jam-packed superhighways, plummeting horses, vast urban wastelands, colossal businessmen, demented cartoon animals, and interstellar oranges are just a small part of Vaughn-James's prophetic vision of society's turn away from the natural world to the artificial. Together for the first time in a single volume, designed and edited by Seth and with an introduction by Jeet Heer. (STL217387) (C: 0-1-0)

Althalia Cabrera might seem like any other witchy Portland hipster whiling away her days behind the counter of a freaky occult museum, but there's more to her whole deal than a trendy pursuit of the craft. Althalia is a bruja by blood—the youngest in a long line of powerful magic users from a long-ago culture indigenous to Mexico. In her twenty years, Althalia has studied with her loving abuela by her side, supporting and mentoring her use of the family magic, and protecting her from the darkest parts of their practice's history. But just as Althalia's inner light and power begins to shine, the darkness of the past finds its way into her world and strikes a tragic blow, testing Althalia in ways she might not be prepared enough to survive.

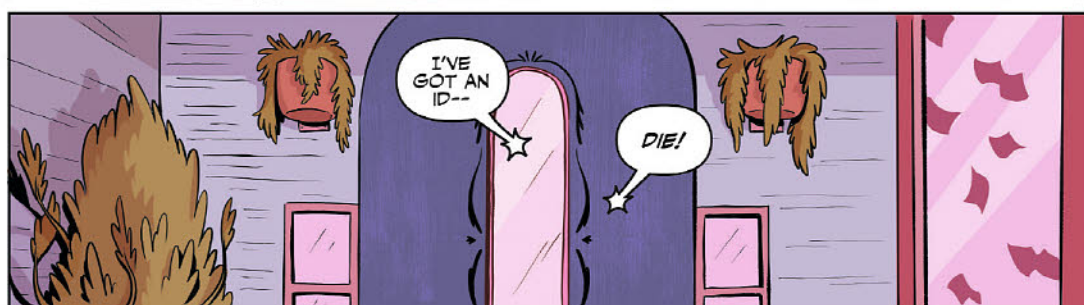

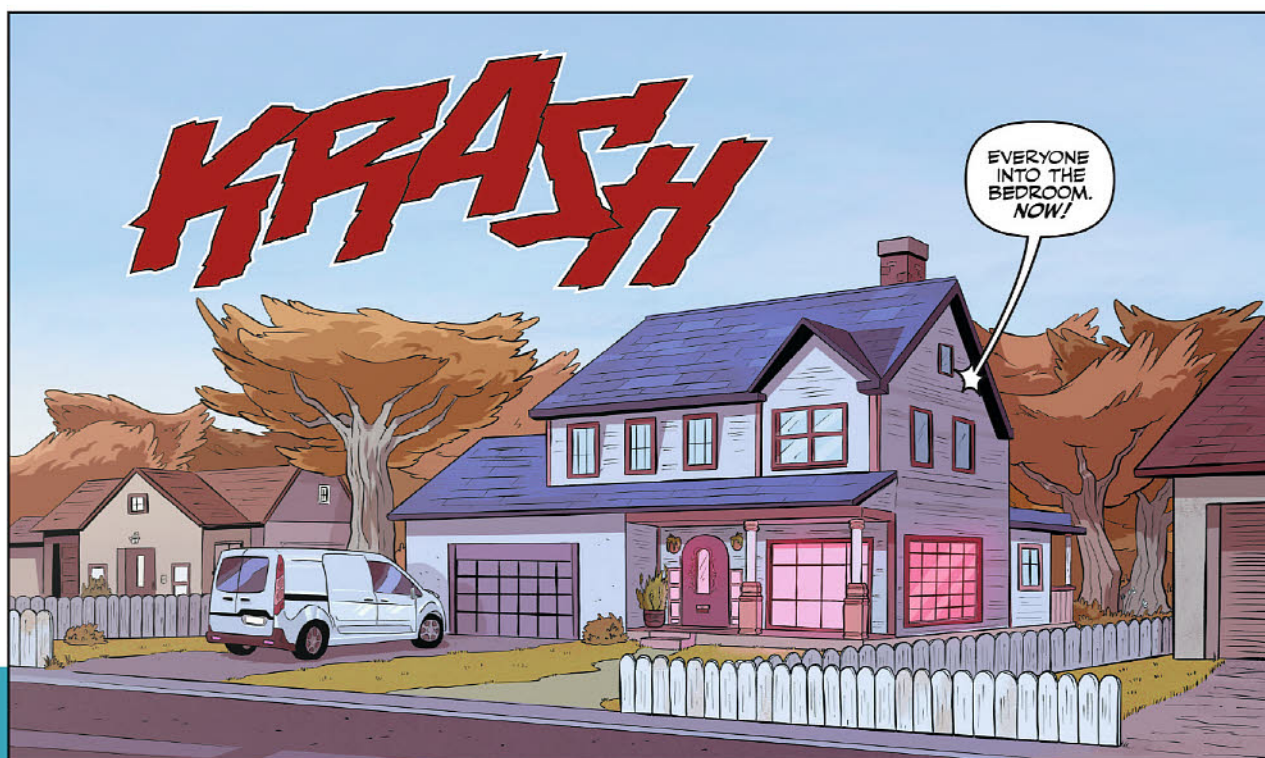

"I've always loved supernatural adventure stories, but growing up, I never watched or read anything with characters who looked like me; everything was very European-focused. Thankfully, I also had an abuela who told me stories of Mexican creatures and myths, and these stories stuck with me as I explored my own connection to my culture. Season of the Bruja is that exploration. Like so many kids of mixed heritage, Althalia is searching from within to find how she fits in—which is hard enough without carrying the weight of her powers and all the danger that comes with them. Working with Sara Soler has been a dream. Her style and vision in bringing so many fanciful worlds to life has elevated our comic in ways I never could have imagined. Season of the Bruja is my way of reminding people who feel pulled between cultures that they aren't alone."

—AARON DURAN (WRITER, SEASON OF THE BRUJA)

"Season of the Bruja is a story that vindicates culture and diversity, the fighting for one's own rights and also of learning, forgiveness, and the love that you can find in family, whether of blood or not. Aaron is an exceptional storyteller, not only because of how he tells the story, but because of the values with which the script has been infused. And Shawna Gore—I couldn't have asked for a better editor! She has fought tooth and nail to carry out this project throughout some of the most difficult years I can remember (Hi there, 2020!), always taking care of the well-being of our comic and of its creators, and girl, what a success! Aaron and Shawna have made Season of the Bruja the kind of project I've always wanted to be involved with!"

—SARA SOLER (ILLUSTRATOR, SEASON OF THE BRUJA)

"Ryan Ferrier and Brian Level working together is a dream team. Ryan brings his signature charm and wit, and Brian provides his unique brand of insanity. Kate Sherron makes every moment scream off the page at you in the best way. This is the kind of comic you won't stop thinking about for a long, long time."

When Beth Wills comes to Silk Hills, a quirky Appalachian town that's seen better days since the mines were abandoned, she expected a bit of culture shock... But not like this! Beth is someone who has a talent for finding people who don't want to be found, and when she's called to Silk Hills by a local titan of industry, she can tell that something's not right. Little does she know...

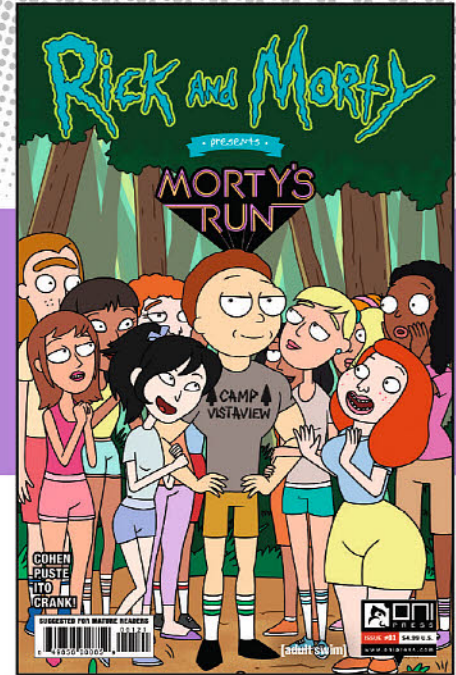

Silk Hills was once booming, but the only reason people tend to come through town anymore is to buy Mothman merchandise. Before long, Beth finds out just how wrong things can get in the woods, as her search for a missing troubled youth finds her running afoul of the local drug trade, too-friendly creepers, a very sinister deer, and psychoactive moth dust.

“Living in Kentucky for the past sixteen years has caused me to fall in love with the hills and valleys of Appalachia. Being a horror writer, it was a perfect place to mill around, turning over ancient stones and the bricks of forgotten history. The familial pride and feuds littering the landscape make a perfect backdrop for a crime/mystery story. The majesty and malevolence of nature hidden in the hollers set up a perfect horror/fantasy. Something ancient is out there in the Smoky Mountains, and Silk Hills just might give us a glimpse of what it is.”

United by a single theme—"catalyst"—the contributors have each written and drawn an eight-page story that explores ideas of reaction and transformation. Edited by Ayoola Solarin, this provocative, intriguing, and revelatory anthology invites readers to consider the situations, people, and events that might accelerate change in their own lives and in our society as a whole. (STL215311) (C: 0-1-0)

The ocean is an enigma storing many mysteries in its vast depths. Numerous accounts of its spirits, curses and creatures of legend span through the centuries but are all chalked up as myth to those on the land. But for those who call the sea home, they know better, and when the unforgiving, salty mistress spills her secrets, they know to steer clear at all costs.

So when an opportunity comes up for several "adventurers" to escape the confines of their mundane life on land, they board a cruise that sets sail through the murky bottomless waters, on a ship said to be haunted. There they will find that some stories of the seven seas are anything but tales.

FANFARE presents PONENT MON

THE SOLITARY GOURMET GN

(W) Masayuki Kusumi (A) Jiro Taniguchi
What do we learn about Mister Inogashira? He's a sole, independent trader importing household and fashion goods from France into Japan. He is always busy but never rushed as he travels around Japan selling his wares. He's a private person who, whilst he enjoys the company of women, prefers to remain a bachelor. He smokes cigarettes but never touches alcohol. But above all, he enjoys his food! He is The Solitary Gourmet! Each of the thirty-two chapters explores another dish in another restaurant in another part of town—from Tokyo to Tottori, from Osaka to hospital (yes!) and even ventures to an Algerian restaurant in Paris, eating and observing. This volume collects all 32 chapters created over two decades and includes the hospital chapter. Like an exquisite meal, this book should be savored over and over again. (STL217256)

VENICE GN

(W/A) Jiro Taniguchi

After his mother dies aged 78, the author discovers a beautifully lacquered box which contains what appear to be old hand-drawn postcards and photos of Venice. One photo of Piazza San Marco particularly catches his eye. It is of a Japanese couple feeding a multitude of pigeons in the square dressed in what looked like 1930's style. Who were they? What relevance did they have for his mother? He travels to Venice to track down the places and events in the images and to discover the identity of the young couple in the old photograph. With very few but well-chosen words and his artist's eye for detail, Taniguchi portrays the Venice of today in a most deserving light. (STL217257) (C: 0-0-1)

While he ends up traveling the world to discover what it takes to be cured of such a disease, a conspiracy back home attempts to explain away his absence. Hinging upon his fate are those of his loved ones: an unstable childhood friend and colleague trapped between factions of the medical establishment that nurtured him; a fiancée emotionally transformed by Kirihito's mysterious disappearance; and a stranger who becomes his guardian angel, a sensual circus-act performer with volatile psychological secrets. Riveting our attention on deformity and its acceptance like The Elephant Man by David Lynch, Ode to Kirihito examines the true worth of human beings through and beyond appearances. SENSEI'S PIOUS LIE VOLUME 1 GN

(W/A/CA) Akane Torikai
Misuzu Hara is a quiet, reserved 24-year-old high school teacher whose world is turned upside down after her friend's fiancé rapes her. Her attempt to connect with one of her students, himself a victim of sexual trauma, results in an unlikely romance, and the repercussions of these events affect everyone around them in often unpredictable ways. Torikai's work is a frank and nuanced examination of the emotional and practical effects of sexual violence, rendering the messy realities in gorgeously refined linework and dialogue far more naturalistic than most manga. The author veers away from blunt indictment to paint one of the most complex and fascinating psychological portraits of both rapist and victim in any medium. Very much not just for manga fans, Sensei's Pious Lie will appeal to readers of graphic novels and literary fiction in general. (STL216909) (C: 0-1-1)

STAR TREK VOYAGER: THE DOCTOR 1/6-SCALE FIGURE

From Newson International. EXO-6's second entry from Star Trek: Voyager is The Doctor, the Emergency Medical Hologram activated when the ship's doctor was killed when Voyager was transported to the Delta Quadrant by the Caretaker. UNIVERSAL MONSTERS: THE WOLFMAN CANE LIMITED EDITION PROP REPLICA

From Factory Entertainment. Factory Entertainment is delighted to announce a new edition of a replica of one of the most iconic Universal Monsters props — Larry Talbot's cane from 1941's The Wolfman! Purchased as a harmless gift, this cane ultimately becomes the instrument of Larry Talbot's destruction. The wolf head design was based on and hand-sculpted over an existing boar head cane, a popular motif on traditional walking canes. The Factory Entertainment team was recently provided with access to never-before-seen vintage reference photography of the hero prop, which allowed them to create a new, highly-detailed hero prop as it appears when first seen in the Conliffe Antique Shop! Not only is this edition of the cane more accurate to the hero prop, it now features an upgraded all metal handle construction and a solid acacia wood shaft. FULLMETAL ALCHEMIST BROTHERHOOD -THE PROMISED DAY- BOARD GAME

SRP $54.99 Release: April 2022
Number of players: 1 - 4
Playtime: 30-45 min For ages: 13+

Commemorating the 20th anniversary of the phenomenal series, FULLMETAL ALCHEMIST, we are releasing a new board game based on the beloved anime FULLMETAL ALCHEMIST BROTHERHOOD.

In this cooperative board game, players take on the roles of some of the series' most iconic characters, while working together to take down the creeping mannequin soldiers and dreadful homunculi and complete the Reverse Transmutation Circle. Take on the challenge solo or with a group of 2 to 4 players. The difficulty can be changed between Novice, Hard, and Ultimate – the last being a true test of strategy and skill. The package design features a newly drawn original illustration.

"The Promised Day" in Central has arrived. Edward Elric, the Fullmetal Alchemist, and his allies aim to activate the Reverse Transmutation Circle to counter the homunculus' Countrywide Transmutation circle. Do you have what it takes to stop Father's ambitions?
